About Deketa Tranae

Deketa Tranae is the Founder and CEO of Pure Necessity By Deketa Tranae® - a lifestyle service that specializes in teaching progressive-minded individuals how to acquire wealth through 'legacy mapping'.

She is a faith shifter who dares young professionals and women to tap into their values, skills, and network to be positioned for a wealth building breakthrough. She has the ability to first assess and analyze an individual's potential then work alongside them to create a plan that will convert into a sustainable wealth building journey. She encourages them to believe that they can jump into a dimension that they never would have thought possible due to fear of the unknown.

As an extension of her human resources background, Deketa Tranae also leverages the aforementioned strategies to mentor, coach, and consult company and organization leaders, and their support teams, to their highest potential. She is now expanding her gifts to curate a community of wealth legacy builders.

Sponsor Invitation

You are invited to become a strategic partner of The Wealth Legacy Builders Circle launch event in conjunction with the premiere of Deketa Tranae's Women In Power documentary produced by Legacy Makers TV and Above The Line Media.

To ensure that the collective vision is executed at the highest level, please take some time to review the following sponsorship opportunities to determine if one is the perfect fit for your business visibility needs.

Partner / $3,500
